EDUCATION PROGRAM

Rebecca Quintana
(she/her/ella) - Education
Coordinator

PROGRAM MISSION

The HomePlate Youth Services Education Program focuses on providing access to school reconnection, navigating financial aid, enrolling in college or trade schools, and providing scholarships and Life Skills classes. We work with youth ages 12-24, specialize in working with youth experiencing housing instability. Currently our Education Department is a team of one (me).

01 LifeSkills Workshops

- FAFSA application help, GED Readiness Workshops, PCC Vocational programs tabling, Cooking Classes, Relationship Goals (Healthy Relationships). Starting January we will have Legal Immigration workshops with Pueblo Unido.
- Our monthly calendar is posted on our social media accounts and also at our drop-in spaces.
- We offer a $50 gift card incentive for youth attendance (must attend 2 Life Skills workshops and 4 of our Work Readiness Workshops)

SCHEDULE FOR DECEMBER

02 Scholarships

- select number of scholarships offered yearly (usually around fall)
- for students ages 18-24 who are planning to enroll/are enrolled in a college or vocational program.
- this year for the first time we offered a Spanish GED scholarship for PCC's Spanish GED program.
- our scholarships do not cover tuition but can be used to cover smaller living expenses and are disbursed monthly (exact amount is dependent on financial need but up to $500/month).
- length of scholarship is 12 months for those enrolled in college and around 3 months for those enrolled in a vocational program.
- Requirements: must meet with me at least once a month, must be attending school or residing primarily in Washington county, must be fully enrolled at the time the scholarship starts, must attend at least one Life Skills class.
