

LOCAL TIME, PLACE, MANNER ORDINANCES

The Department of Housing Services, in partnership with County Counsel, is leading the policy development process to prepare the Board of County Commissioners to consider enacting a new County ordinance in compliance with House Bill 3115. HB3115 codifies the Martin v Boise case by requiring that any Oregon jurisdictions that regulate when, where, and how people experiencing homelessness are allowed to sleep on public property when there is no available shelter option, do so in an objectively reasonable manner. This policy requirement is generally known as “Time, Place and Manner.” Local ordinances, if any, must be compliant by July 1, 2023.

Updated information on the draft ordinance will be posted to the Washington County webpage: <https://www.washingtoncountyor.gov/housing/time-place-manner>.

Links to similar ordinances within Hillsboro and Beaverton city limits are as follows:

Hillsboro: <https://www.hillsboro-oregon.gov/services/community-services/homelessness-initiatives>

Beaverton: <https://beavertonoregon.gov/1499/Beaverton-Homelessness-Response>

Link to more information:

A survey is under development as an additional way to provide feedback on implementation of the draft ordinance and will be posted to <https://www.washingtoncountyor.gov/housing/tpm-next-steps-community-engagement>.