Treekeepers

Presentation by Fran Warren

The Treekeepers of Washington County engage with local communities to protect existing trees. In many parts of urban unincorporated Washington County, large trees and groves are being removed to enable development. Fran will share how trees and housing developments can coexist. She will also talk about Treekeepers' efforts and support in enacting legal protections for trees.

Neighbors for Wetland Preservation

Presented by Kirstin Lurtz

A non-profit committed to Fanno Creek, old growth trees, healthy wetlands and wildlife habitat. Their focus is the greenspace alongside the Fanno Creek Trail in Garden Home.

Tualatin Hills Park & Recreation District has two open positions on the Board of Directors. Positions are at-large, meaning they serve the entire district, and terms last for four years beginning July 1 and ending June 30, 2027. For more info, visit: <https://www.thprd.org/district-information/board-elections>

State's new Great Streets program is recruiting four community reps to serve on project review team. Projects will improve safety and increase access to walking, biking and transit in communities where the main street is also a state highway. Program is working toward developing a transportation system that is innovative and serves users with diverse needs while including community members in the decision-making process.
