FORMAT

All candidates make a one-minute opening statement. An audience question session will follow. Questions from the audience will be collected upon arrival and reviewed for duplicates, relevance, and appropriacy. Questions should not be directed to specific candidates. A question will be asked of one side to answer, then the other side. Then the next question will be asked first to the side that went second in the previous question, and so on. Each candidate will have one minute to make a closing argument as to why they should be elected.
