Clean Water Services presented a brief overview of the pump station they are planning to put in on the corner of 229th and Rosedale Rd to service the new South Hillsboro development in the urban growth boundary. They discussed what a pump station is, how they operate, and the cost of around $15-18 million. Construction is scheduled to begin on summer 2025.

The second presentation was by Nancy Flores and Amy Davis about preparedness in terms of a natural or other disaster. They discussed what to have prepared, distributed booklets to have a plan in place, what to do about pets, water, human waste. They asked us a series of questions of things we wished we had when a disaster struck and someone asked a question about how to maintain financial wellness when everything is electronic. They did not have much on this topic and liked the suggestion. They also talked about the importance of having a plan for children and strategies to protect mental wellness.
